Jehan Aloysius presents ‘A Christmas Carol The Musical’

Posted on

Jehan Aloysius as Ebenezer Scrooge.

This November 2025, CentreStage Productions—Sri Lanka’s acclaimed trailblazer in contemporary theater—brings audiences a spectacular new musical adaptation of Charles Dickens’ timeless classic, A Christmas Carol.

The production marks a double milestone: the 24th anniversary of CentreStage Productions and the 30th year of its founder and visionary director, Jehan Aloysius, behind the scenes and now onstage as Ebenezer Scrooge.

Described as three years in the making, Aloysius’ A Christmas Carol – The Musical promises a festive celebration filled with original music, stirring performances, and dazzling stagecraft. Expect sumptuous costumes, evocative lighting, and CentreStage’s signature creative direction—transforming Dickens’ story of redemption, generosity, and the spirit of Christmas into an unforgettable experience for all ages.

“It’s been a labor of love—a chance to craft something deeply meaningful and festive, while celebrating the power of theater to inspire and connect,”— Jehan Aloysius, composer, lyricist and director.

The production features celebrated veterans Sean Amarasekara, Arjuna Wignarajah, Dion Nanayakkara, and Joanne Aloysius Rajaiyah, alongside rising stars Rachel Hettiarachchi and Chaitanya Perera. They are joined by talented young performers Kevin Larson, Arali Jayasundera, and others, creating a dynamic cast that bridges generations of Sri Lankan theater.

Since its founding, CentreStage Productions has redefined Sri Lankan theater through innovative adaptations and powerful original works blending music, drama, and social reflection. Under Aloysius’ artistic leadership, the company has earned critical acclaim, inspired countless performers, and championed a bold, home-grown theatrical voice.

> “It’s been a labor of love— a chance to craft something deeply meaningful and festive, while celebrating the power of theater to inspire and connect,”— Jehan Aloysius, composer, lyricist and director.

Amid the snow and shadows, the sounds of carols awaken a heart that has long been frozen.

The angel of Christmas arrives—radiant, fearless, and full of light.

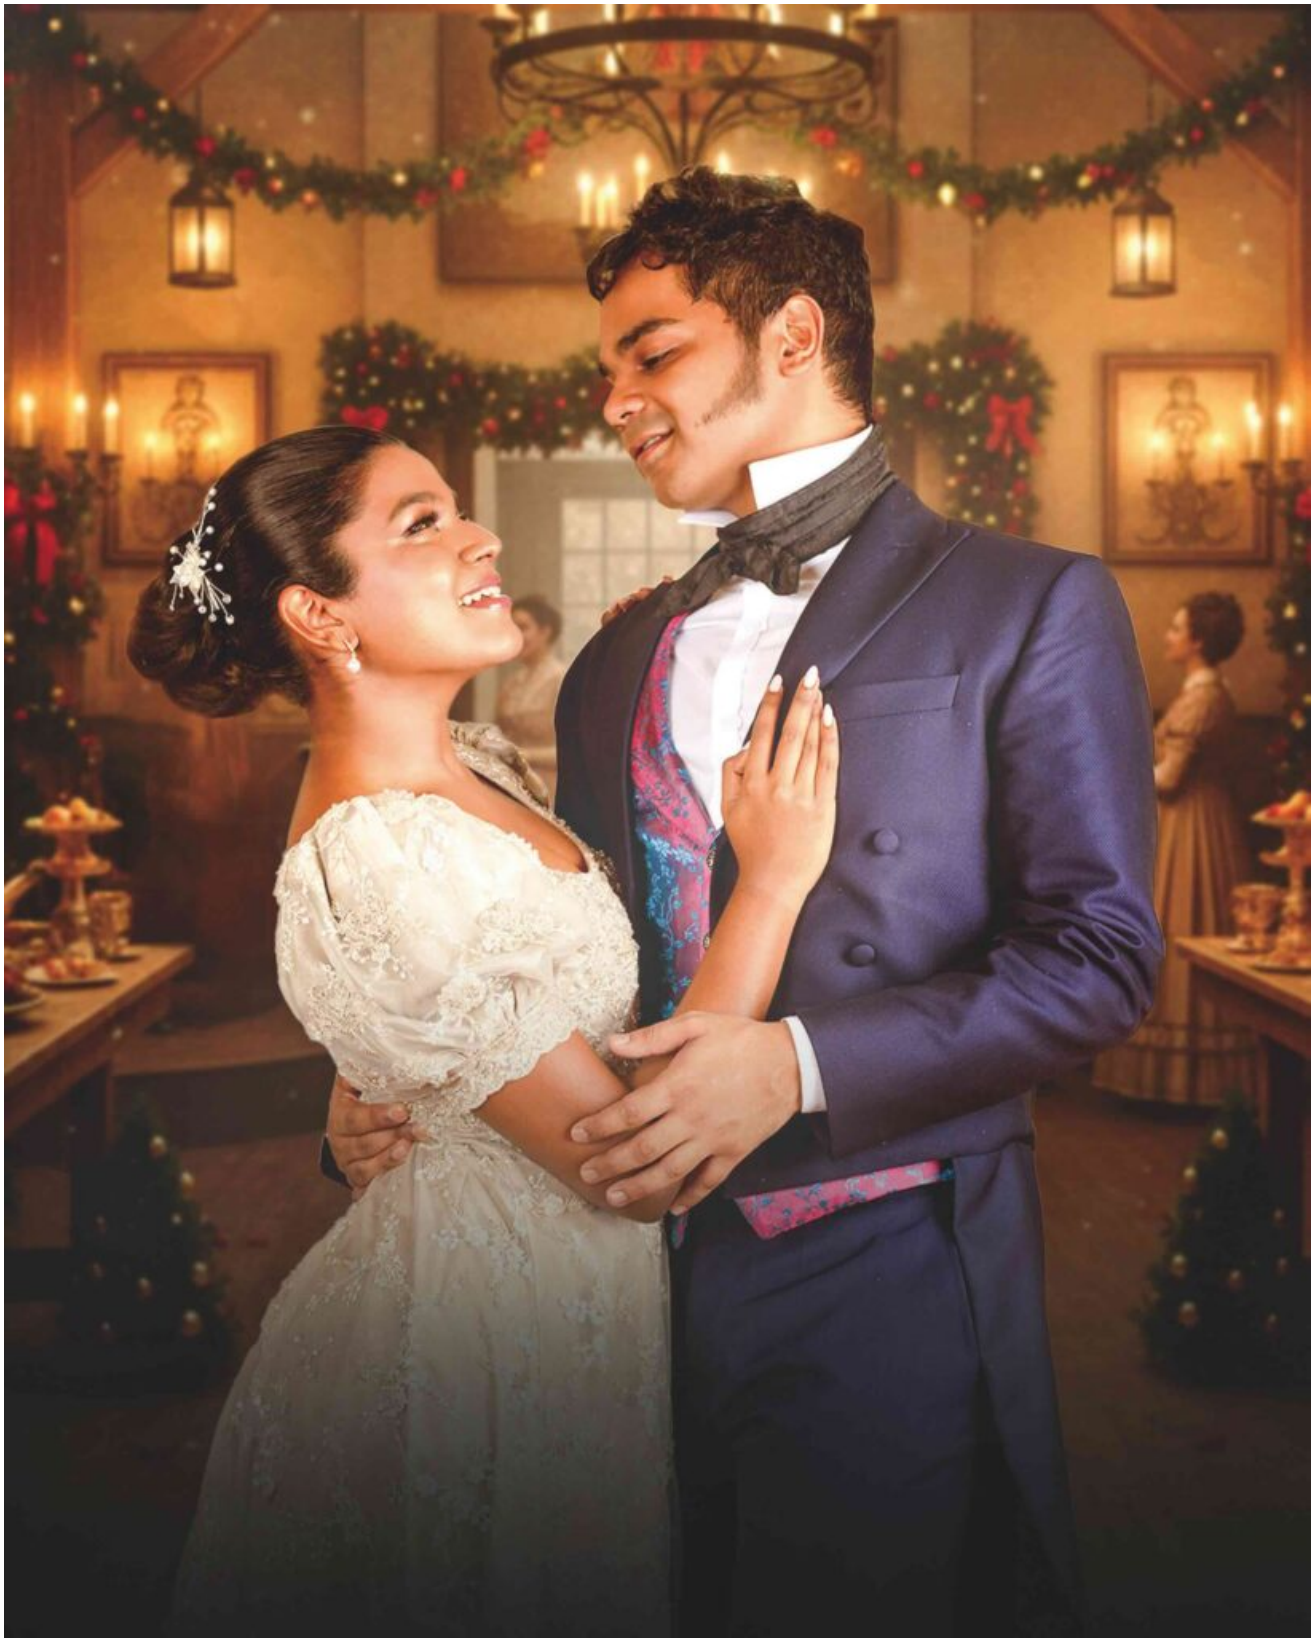

In the midst of snow and carols, love is the greatest gift of Christmas.

A toast to love, laughter, and Christmas cheer.

Joy, laughter, and a sprinkle of festive mischief!

Step into the splendor of the season — music, magic, and the spirit of Christmas.

November 22–23, 27–30, 2025

Venue: Lionel Wendt Theater.

Time: 7.30pm

Tickets: Rs. 2,500 (balcony, unreserved), Rs.4,000, Rs. 6,500, Rs. 8,500