Jewel Laurel Promotes The Jewel Industry

Posted on

Basil Rajapaksa, Minister of Economic Development along with Lakshman Yapa Abeywardena, Deputy Minister of Economic Development are seen visiting the Jewel Laurel stall

At the Tourism Exhibition Jewel Laurel caught the attention of many visitors and visiting foreign dignitaries alike, and helped elevate the status of ornate Sri Lankan jewellery amongst all and sundry at the venue. Jewel Laurel was the only jeweller present at the Exhibition designed to promote tourism opportunities.

In addition to the acclaim garnered from around the western hemisphere, in Sri Lanka Jewel Laurel is a registered and well reputed exporter of gems and jewellery. The combination of a detail-oriented craftsmanship and strong designs along with state-of-the-art technology has enabled Jewel Laurel to create some elegant and sophisticated pieces of jewellery to suit the evolving tastes of its global clientele. With the Valentine season and connected promotions now over, Jewel Laurel looks ahead to turn out exclusive pieces of gem studded jewellery for elegant party and evening wear to suit the trends of the zeitgeist.