Jewel Laurel Ready For The Fall Tourist Season

Posted on

A ring from Jewel Laurel’s collection

The 2011/2012 tourist season has commenced and Jewel Laurel has prepared some outstanding attractions in full seasonal splendour. The innovative jeweller features its internationally acclaimed array of Sapphires, Rubies, Cats-eyes, Moonstones and other types of natural and genuine gemstones which hail directly from the deep mines of rural Sri Lanka, along with a range of enchanting pieces of jewellery, which will hold shoppers and enthusiasts in awe.

Jewel Laurel’s team of Lapidarists cut and polish these precious stones for customers who seek nothing but the finest at an affordable price. The jeweller is capable of handling customers’ specific needs be it jewellery or un-mounted gemstones. Jewlel Laurel has won the hearts of its esteemed, up-market clientele as a designer jewellery boutique where world class jewellery on par with globally renowned brands can be purchased at a fraction of their price.

With every purchase of a valuable Gemstone Jewel Laurel provides its customers with a certificate authenticated by qualified Gemologists of the Sri Lanka Gem and Jewellery Authority.