Jewellery Launch At Cantaloupe Boutique

Posted on

Kaushalya Piyasiri (right) with her spokesperson

Kaushalya Piyasiri’s first collection of jewellery was launched at the Cantaloupe Boutique. The collection includes several pieces of intricately handcrafted filigree and timeless designs set in an array of coloured gemstones boasting Sri Lankan artistry.  Earrings, chains, necklaces and bracelets are among Kaushalya’s creations. Having captured the true essence of glamour and sophistication in all her individually designed pieces, these pristine creations promise exclusivity and extravagance. Her jewellery favours any colourful, exotic and vibrant gemstone unearthed from any part of the world, mixing luxury with simplicity. There is a touch of purity and sincerity in the intricate designs.

[nggallery id=33]