

Lady Bartender Bags Gold For MLH At 21st Marie Brizard 2012 At The Colombo Region Competition

The winners Geethma Sandamali and Damith Soyza

Geethma Sandamali of MLH bagged the Gold and Damith Soyza took on the Fifth Place at the Marie Brizard classical innovative competition. This event organised by the Ceylon Hotel School Graduates Association together with Free Lanka Trading is an event in the hospitality sector, which showcases talent and signature creations by youth that are passionate in blends, concoctions, mixtures, creation and attention to detail presentation.

“Geethma did indeed make us proud by not only showcasing her talents but proudly showcasing that a female can reign supreme in a discipline that is globally acclaimed to be predominantly a male’s forte,” stated Anura Dewapura, General Manager - MLH.

He further added, “we wish her the best in the All Island Competition to be held soon.”
