

Launch Of High Tea At Ramada Hotel

High Tea spread

Ramada Hotel launched its weekend High Tea event recently. The buffet offers a large spread of food items while the setting is complemented with soft, light music. The High Tea spread is ideal for both business gatherings and guests seeking to relax and enjoy the afternoon. Food items range from canapés, short eats, hot food items, tandoori wraps, pizzas, to desserts such as mousse, mini cakes and other sweet treats. In addition, it provides a variety of vegetarian items. This is accompanied with a choice of tea, coffee, iced coffee or juice. The afternoon event hopes to introduce small lamprais and burgers to the menu to add variety and cater to the customer's taste. High Tea at Ramada is held every Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoon.
