Launch of Taprobana, Wadduwa by Asia Leisure

Posted on
(L–R): Alexander A Karchava, Ambassador of the Russian Federation, Tomomi Hobo, Nobuhito Hobo, Ambassador of Japan, Dr Sarath Amunugama, Deputy Minister of Finance and Planning, Y Watanabe of Japan Capital, Hama of Japan Capital, Stefan Abeyesinhe, Group CEO – Asia Capital, Reyhan Morris, CEO – Asia Leisure and Sunela Fernando, Head of Marketing Communications

Taprobana Wadduwa opened its doors to deliver the promise of a truly delightful experience for the indulgent traveller.

A subsidiary of Asia Capital, Asia Leisure’s current thrust on expansion makes Taprobana the second hotel to be launched within the time span of nine months. Taprobana Wadduwa offers 27 rooms with high focus on bespoke services.

Taprobana is for today’s guest who is design-perceptive, technology dependent and consistently craving extraordinary experiences. With the exclusive and dynamic Taprobana culture, the new global citizen finds a place to both retreat and energise.