

The Lavinia Signature Riders visit the iconic Mount Lavinia Hotel

Welcoming The Lavinia Signature Riders

The Harley Davidson Street Thunder Ride concluded with the Harley Davidson “Street Thunder Beach party” at the Paradise beach of Mount Lavinia Hotel.

In “The Lavinia Signature ride”, which was the last leg of the tour the riders travelled from Bentota to Mount Lavinia, to be warmly welcomed by the Chief Guest Dhanasiri Amaratunga, Mayor of Dehiwala, followed by the loud rumble of the pots and pans of the kitchen brigade of the hotel.

Chinthaka Daluwatte, Director Sales and Marketing - MLH said, “this is a very good opportunity for the tourism industry in Sri Lanka, where we gain recognition for all aspects of our diverse destination by hosting an internationally acclaimed community of bike enthusiasts.”

Mount Lavinia Hotel one of the oldest surviving colonial buildings in Sri Lanka was the final host to the street thunder riders.
