

“Let Your Love Shine” At House Of Fashions This Festive Season

House Of Fashions, the well-known fashion store in town has brought in the festive season in style. Themed “Let your love shine”, the store features many treats and surprises for customers that will be available until the December 31, 2011. Shoppers can pick the latest fashionable designs as well as homeware and souvenirs. A variety of christmas decor is also in store. The Toys Section offers a wide range of toys that will make the ideal gifts for children.