

Lion Royal Tourisme wins at the Sri Lanka Tourism Awards 2018

Lion Royal Tourisme was awarded as the Major Inbound Tour Operator – Small Category at the Sri Lanka Tourism Awards 2018. Being a well reputed Destination Management Company, the award marks the excellence of the service that Lion Royal Tourism has provided during the nine years since its inception.

Founded by Nilan Wickramasinghe in 1999, it has been an active player in the field of tourism as an intermediary service provider for visitors to Sri Lanka.

In realising the Lion Royal Vision, 'Affordable Star Class Tourism', the group has found hotels in two of the most-sought after tourism destinations, the cultural triangle and the west coast. The Kassapa Lions Rock in Sigiriya, established in 2007, recently upgraded their luxury accommodation and amenities with 20 additional rooms and a second swimming pool. The Coco Royal Beach Resort established in 2015 offers facilities for a comfortable and an enjoyable stay by the sea.

Lion Royal Group's sustainable growth is a result of satisfactory customer service, and identifying and developing a nature and culture-friendly working environment. Following their motto, “Right Royal Treatment that fits for a King”, the Lion Royal Tourisme strives to deliver a value added service to their clients.
