Christine Nature Resort is a lavish hotel situated in Henegama, Gampaha. It is situated in a rural setting with a village located close-by. One of the chalets at the resort can accommodate six people.

In addition to the chalets being equipped with comforts like satellite TV, DVD player, hot water, separate pantry for cooking and 24 hour room service, the resort also features a special “Kamatha Lunch” at a nearby paddy field on Sundays, a tour of the neighbouring village in a bullock cart or vintage Volkswagon and the chance to observe drilling for oil with the traditional sekkuwa.

The a la carte restaurant overlooking the swimming pool serves up mouth-watering dishes. All meals are prepared in the kitchen that uses traditional cooking methods. The hotel also has a conference hall and, on request, organises special, tailor-made garden functions for informal parties and official gatherings.
