The interior of Anantaya Resort by R M Perera

R M Perera is proud to be the main furniture supplier for Anantaya’s luxury retreats in Chilaw and Passikudah. But they’re not the only beach resorts where you’ll find furniture from the brand.

Among their other clients are the Citrus resorts in Hikkaduwa and Waskaduwa, The Steuart Colombo, Vivanta by Taj in Bentota, Cape Weligama and Marriot Weligama.

R M Perera’s insistence on quality means they use only the very best materials. Furniture and interiors are solid, comfortable, tasteful and have a timeless appeal, while avoiding ostentatiousness. Interior projects for resorts is only one area covered by the firm. When it was established in 1984, R M Perera’s core aim was to create quality furniture. As the years have passed they’ve ventured into other areas, expanding operations to include civil, turnkey interior projects and furnishing for resorts.

Despite furniture being their main focus, R M Perera today also works on many aspects of office interiors, from partitioning to seating and conference tables. The company undertakes all brick work, masonry work, concreting, floorand wall tiling, and bathroom fittings.

The two factories owned by R M Perera are equipped with the latest woodworking machinery and are designed with maximum efficiency in mind. This in turn translates to savings for their clients.

Among the company’s most notable projects in Sri Lanka are the head offices of LAUGFS Holdings, MTV, Hemas Hospital, Central Bank Currency Museum and the Dilmah t Lounge.
