

Mahogany Masterpieces, the furniture brand of Craft Supplies relaunched their redesigned website mahogany.lk, which is improved with the latest information technology tools to enable access via mobile devices such as smart phones and tablet PCs. The website is also linked to several social media sites thus making communication with the company and obtaining product information easier than ever before.

The relaunch took place inline with the company's 40th anniversary celebrations as dealers in modern and elegant furniture designs which have conquered both local and international markets.

A search bar, newsletter subscription, product inquiry tab for product information accessibility, testimonials where products can be rated and links to popular social media networks are among the new features of the website.

The team at Mahogany Masterpieces is very excited about this step which is the first in a series of significant changes to enhance the overall customer experience. The year 2014 will
