

Mid week jazz at Colombo Courtyard

‘Replay’ Band performing at Colombo Courtyard

Colombo Courtyard has introduced a novel midweek night out for city dwellers. The ‘Midweek Jazz’ night will see the band Replay performing at the Loft-Lounge Bar of the Colombo Courtyard every Wednesday from 7 pm onwards.

Abeer Thapar, Director - Colombo Courtyard says Jazz Nights at the Loft-Lounge Bar has created an interest level amongst their customers, bringing them out in the middle of the week for an entertaining session. “Midweek night outs are different from Friday night outs. People go out in the night after work and they have to go back to work the next morning. Therefore, midweek night outs do not drag on. And there should be some space for conversation, relaxation and good entertainment. Jazz music played at our Loft-Lounge Bar creates the perfect atmosphere for a midweek night out,” explained Thapar.
