Mirage Colombo: the latest star class hotel in Colombo

Posted on

Prabath Fonseka, Chairman – Mirage Colombo addressing the gathering

The latest addition to Colombo’s star hotels, Mirage Hotel, had its soft opening under the patronage of Prabath Fonseka, Chairman. The four-star 60 roomed hotel situated in Marine Drive, Wellawatte is poised to offer sophisticated business and leisure travellers unlimited luxury only an hours drive away from Bandaranaike International Airport, Katunayake and within walking distance to the hive of business activities. Addressing the distinguished gathering, Prabath Fonseka— a Chemist and Nutritionist by profession who has now ventured into hospitality industry—said that he was able to achieve this success in 18 months through much hard work, dedication commitment and enthusiasm. “I am very happy and certain that this will add to the Sri Lankan economy. I create employment for youth and dollars for this country. In 2009, after winning the war, HE the President invited the entrepreneurs and the business community to make this country the best tourist destination in the world. I thought I must do my duty and invested in this project. I am certain it will bring good result for the economy,” he further commented.

Mirage Colombo’s professional and dedicated staff include Lloyd Opath, Executive Chef and his team who cater to guests with rich spreads of Italian, Chinese and Sri Lankan food along with delicious deserts. Every room at this breathtaking location of Mirage has individual thermostat control, IDD facilities, mini bar, 24-hour room service, safe deposit lockers, 32 inch LED TV with satellite connection, tea/coffee making facilities and Wi-Fi internet connection.

Further you can dine under the stars at the roof top restaurant, the Planetarium and indulge in a drink of your choice at the Aquarium Bar. Mirage also offers conference facilities to launch products or to have business get-togethers and conventions.