Mlesna Tea Centre re-opens at Hilton Colombo

Posted on

Mlesna Tea Centre at Hilton Colombo offers pure Ceylon Tea to its clientele since 1987.

Mlesna Tea Centre located within Hilton Colombo was ceremoniously re-opened by Anselm Perera, Founder and Managing Director, Mlesna; Manesh Fernando, General Manager, Hilton Colombo; Dr Rohan Pethiyagoda, Former Chairman, Sri Lanka Tea Board; Rev Fr Felician Perera and Ranjith Perera. The outlet has been a part of the shopping precinct at Hilton Colombo for 32 years, since it first opened its doors in September 1987.

Since then Mlesna has had its Tea Centre opened to serve the guests and patrons of Hilton Colombo daily.

As a part of the renovations and refurbishments of Hilton Colombo, the Mlesna Tea

Centre has been re-located to the shopping arcade of the hotel on the ground floor. The tea centre has maintained its design and heritage, while offering a selection of the finest Ceylon Tea.

Anselm Perera, Founder/MD, Mlesna; Manesh Fernando, GM, Hilton Colombo; Rohan Pethiyagoda, Former Chairman, Sri Lanka Tea Board; Rev Fr Felician Perera and Ranjith Perera ceremoniously cutting the ribbon.

Rohan Pethiyagoda, Former Chairman, Sri Lanka Tea Board lighting the traditional oil lamp. Anselm Perera, Founder/MD, Mlesna; Ranjith Perera and Manesh Fernando, GM, Hilton Colombo look on.

Anselm Perera accepting the first business transaction from Ranjith Perera.