Modern apartment complexes by CM Condos

Posted on

Ken Tower

Civi-Mec Construction, established in 2004 with the approval of the Board of Investment (BOI) and registered under Institute for Construction Training and Development (ICTAD), has developed and completed three apartment Complexes in Colombo. The projects were carried out under the brand name of ‘CM Condos’.

Successfully completed apartment complex projects by ‘CM Condos’ include Luxmy Court 1 and 2, Harmer’s Residencies while construction of the projects of Windsor Tower, City Tower and Ken Tower are currently underway.

This will serve as an ideal opportunity for investing in an apartment, given the competitive prices that in relation to the current pricing in the property development industry in Sri Lanka.