Mount Lavinia celebrates World Tourism Day

Posted on
Participants at the World Tourism Day

In view of World Tourism Day, Mount Lavinia Hotel staff together with the staff of the railway station, neighbors, well wishers and in-house guests conducted a Sharamadana. The participants were involved in replanting, clearing of garbage, colour washing and making improvements to the railway station building.