

Mount Lavinia Hotel to host British pianist Dr Jonathan Clark with Rohan De Lanerolle

Empire Ballroom, Mount Lavinia
Hotel

British pianist, composer, organist and conductor Dr Jonathan Clarke will be making his debut in Sri Lanka this July with three concerts in Colombo, Kandy and Galle with a possibility of Jaffna as well.

Mount Lavinia Hotel will be the host hotel in Colombo presenting Dr Jonathan Clark with Rohan De Lanerolle, famous soloist and sought-after vocal coach, unveiling the 'Classics to Light' debut tour in Sri Lanka. Their performance at the hotel is set for the July 13, 2010 in the Empire Ballroom that will be converted to the Royal Albert Hall to surface the ambiance.

A new, unusual and brilliant performance is ready to take

Sri Lanka by storm; the concert will include songs from Classical to Light-Classical coupled with some Italian Neapolitan songs showing the versatility of the artists and including something for the entertainment of everyone who would be a part of the concert.

"We are confident of staging a performance that will not only help increase the popularity of these two artists but also create an affiliation with our esteemed establishment in support of 'Performing Arts' in Sri Lanka," states Anura Dewapura, General Manager, Mount Lavinia Hotel.
