

Mount Lavinia Hotel wins Top Performer Award

Mount Lavinia Hotel has served many tourists since its inception in 1806. From an enthralling Governor's palace enriched by a colonial history of a by-gone era, to the service oriented four-star hotel it is today, the hotel is a favourite holiday go-to place for many and to even more it is felt as a place like home filled with many memories. From generation to generation, visitors continue to visit and re-visit this classic timeless grandeur and the hotel has won over the hearts of many guests.

Recognising this all-round performance of service and hospitality, the hotel won the Expedia Group's 'Top Performer' prize in the four and five star hotel category for the Year 2017. The hotel also won the 'Loved By Guest' title from Hotels.com, the famed OTA site.

The hotel continues to remain true to its purpose of creating a landscape of hospitable, home-like services to enrich a vacation.
