New collection of intricately designed jewellery pieces from Treasure Chest

Posted on

Treasure Chest is looking to introduce an elevated level of style which is unique, trendy and timeless with a whole new collection of elegant jewellery pieces.

The new range includes a wide collection of intricately designed jewellery pieces ranging from lavish necklace sets featuring ceylon sapphires, eye-catching pendants and earring sets featuring shading fancy sapphires, complemented with a range of colourful Sri Lankan gemstones. The new range would certainly captivate the fashion conscious clientele of Sri Lanka.

The owners of Treasure Chest travel the world in search of unique designs and concepts, so that its customers can enjoy the experience of wearing jewellery that stands out not only in value, but also in character and charm.

Tourists visiting Galle Fort can drop by the newly opened Boutique at Pedlar Street. Treasure Chest has stores across Sri Lanka starting with the flagship store at Cinnamon Lakeside Hotel and in major shopping malls—Majestic City, Liberty Plaza and Kandy City Centre.
