The Thambapanni Retreat

Celebrating ten successful years in operation, the Thambapanni Retreat has been upgraded to a Luxury Boutique Hotel, catering to a clientele who wish to experience tranquillity and indulgence. The retreat is situated along the beaches of Unawatuna with the Roomassala peak in southern Sri Lanka. The hotel, has bungalows, villas and suites that epitomise luxury and colonial charm. The management has enhanced the facilities in the rooms, upgraded the furniture and the bathrooms, including the Ayurveda Spa, the restaurant and swimming pool. The garden has been beautifully landscaped in keeping with the new concept.

Apart from the upgrading, the management has also added two brand new luxury interconnecting rooms, ideal for family vacations. The hotel also offers exciting activities like diving and snorkeling, along with nature trails and excursions to the Dutch built fort.
