New Twist at Romafour

Posted on Ladies clothing with modern flair

One encounters Romafour along Galle Road, standing tall at the corner of Joseph’s Lane. Romafour is the place to visit for trendy, stylish and fashionable attire for the whole family.

Words Tishani Sripathi
Photographs Vishwathan Tharmakulasingam and Geeth Viduranga

Romafour, which sets trends with modish and fashion-able clothing has spun a new twist.

With an array of choice, the store offers handpicked and unique items including stylish womens office and party wear, adorable outfits and fun toys for kids and fashionable men’s wear. Meandering through the aisles allow your fingers run through the plethora of mesmerising colours and feel the high quality of the material.

All collections at Romafour have an ethnic touch with trendy designs from batiks and handloom to linen, looking exquisite on the mannequin display. They also provide fabulous men’s linen wear. Complementary to these collections are the availability of distinctive fashion jewellery, to beautiful earrings and glit bangles to belts and wallets. Accompanying these are chic, trendy shoes for men, women and kids, quality perfumes and cosmetics as well.

Currently, the collections here are either made by Romafour or are imported; clothing are handpicked with great care to ensure the quality and distinctiveness in design. Even their suppliers are adjudged based on current trends, technology and modern techniques. In the rapid-paced world of fashion, Romafour strives to cater to every clothing requirement while also providing limited edition pieces.

Romafour is in its essence a one stop fashion store. Yet, there is more in store; the most exciting news about this trendy boutique is that, Romafour now opens its doors to new as well as aspiring designers with credentials from design schools across the country. Thus, the store hopes to provide a platform for new talent to showcase their styles and innovations under their own brand name not just in the clothing, but in accessories too. These designers would be assigned a space of their own to exclusively display their collections.

Through the infusion of novel thinking into the industry with that of the experienced style pioneers, Romafour strives to provide their valued patrons the choicest fashion. While their existing collection of elegant evening gowns are of only one piece of each design, these will be embellished through this latest venture. The future of Romafour would also include a collection of wedding dresses as well.

With satisfaction of customers being the ultimate goal, Romafour is ready to provide you with a style that makes a statement. In trend, unique and of the highest quality; shopping at Romafour will be an enjoyable experience for the whole family.

71, Galle Road, Colombo 4
(+94 11) 258 0950
info@romafour.com
romafour.com