Celebrating 25 years of being a trendsetter in the Sri Lankan hospitality industry, Hilton Colombo brings back the hotel’s much anticipated New Year’s Eve gala dinner dance.

The party is set to be one of Colombo’s most elaborate New Year’s Eve bashes.

Rudolf Troestler, General Manager stated, ‘‘we take great pride in consistently offering an exceptional experience to our guests. They will truly enjoy their New Year’s Eve in a special way at the Silver Ball.’’ Geoffrey Fernando and Purple Rain as well as Black Velvet are among the entertainers.

Guests will have the opportunity to win 25 air tickets to exotic destinations. The evening will start at 9pm, with tickets priced at 20,000 rupees inclusive of an international gala dinner buffet.

Executive Chef Rohan Fernandopulle stated, “we will have individual food stations ranging from charcuterie, cheese, seafood ice bar, Japanese, vegetarian, meat and poultry, pasta house, carvery and more.” Roasted pumpkin tortellini with white truffle, lobster and mushroom ravioli in lobster sauce, Maryland king crab, caviar vintage, roasted stuffed quails with morel sauce, and exotic desserts are to be savoured. The Silver Ball will be hosted at the Hilton’s Grand Ballroom on December 31.
