Noritake Opens Exclusive City Store

Posted on

Motoyasu Nakanishi, Deputy Chairman and Managing Director of Noritake Lanka Porcelain declares open the new store as other distinguished guests look on Noritake Lanka Porcelain opened an exclusive branch in Colpetty to cater to high-end foreign and local visitors with an investment of Rs 5 million. The store was officially declared open by Motoyasu Nakanishi, Deputy Chairman and Managing Director of Noritake Lanka Porcelain. Seema Baloch, the High Commissioner for Pakistan in Sri Lanka was the chief guest at the event.

The company had decided to open this branch to make the public aware about the brand and its attractive novel designs and the new location is expected to give convenience to clients. Tours to Noritake factory in Matale can also be organised from this point to those who are interested in visiting the factory.

[nggallery id=275]