Noritake Lanka Porcelain, expanded its retail network with the opening of its store in Pepiliyana to serve the rapidly growing towns in the south of Colombo and beyond, ahead of the festive season.

“This new store is on par with our international standards and will cater to the increasing demand in the south of Colombo. The market here is very discerning and the customer wants nothing but the best, which makes us stay focused on our market and offer the finest porcelain, at very competitive and attractive prices,” said Yoshinari Shimaya, Deputy Chairman and Managing Director, Noritake Lanka Porcelain.

“The new store offers convenience to our customers, more so, during the Christmas and New Year season. Our decision to open this branch was also to make the public more aware about our brand and the world class designs and range we offer,” said Sujatha Egodagedera, Director / General Manager, Noritake Lanke Porcelain.

A well-trained team is on hand at the showroom to help customers make their purchases including assisting them with selecting items for the gift registry from a range of pieces which, include casual dining to international collections, hand painted and souvenir collection and the Bone China collection, considered one of the favourites.
