Geri Murphy and Sharlyn Stafford,
Owners of Originals

Bringing an alternative style to the furniture industry of Sri Lanka, Originals marked their two-year anniversary. Geri Murphy, Owner of Originals said, “the past few years have been an evolving process. Originals have now begun to work with local manufacturers, bringing a Sri Lankan feel to our products while continuing to stay different with a more contemporary feel.” Sharlyn Stafford, owner of Originals added that, “we not only supply to local customers, but export to the Originals flagship store in Singapore.”

At Originals the customer has the luxury of buying exactly what they see in an instant. Thus they are growing and learning more about the market base by reaching out and experimenting. Evolving and moving, Originals hopes to bring out a line of Spa products as well.
