Shopping for perfumes and cosmetics at the Orient's Duty Free Shop at the International Airport.

A classic piece of the watchmaker's craft from Switzerland, cherished perfumes from Paris, malt whisky from the best glens of Scotland, the smokers special delight in cigars from Holland, Cognac from the vineyards of France, enticing lingerie from New York, precision cameras from Japan, dependable gadgetry from Germany, - just a part of the filling in a Duty Free shopping bag of the man in the grey flannel suit or the woman in the relaxing attire of a tropical holiday.

Part of the problem of filling this bag in the Duty Free area in most airports is that one has to trek from shop to shop to make the right purchase at the right price.

Thankfully this problem does not exist at Colombo's International Airport at Katunayake, because of the presence of the Orient Duty Free Shopping Complex, managed by the Orient Company (Ceylon) limited, a Sri Lanka Government Owned Business Undertaking. The complex is the answer to all demands of the
