Orofini Jewellery opens flagship store

Posted on

Orofini Jewellery’s flaship store in Colombo

Orofini Jewellery opened their flagship store in Colombo, an addition to their existing four stores in Sri Lanka and Maldives – at the Sheraton Maldives, Niyama Maldives, Lanka Princess Hotel and Avani Bentota.

A family owned company with three generations of expertise and professionalism in the Gem and Jewellery industry, Orofini Jewellery has well positioned themselves as bespoke jewellers of choice for reputed jewellers and high end clients worldwide. You can expect to find fabulous Sapphires, Rubies and other coloured stones both as loose gemstones as well as fine Gem-studded jewellery.

Jewellery designs are developed by an acclaimed team of jewellery designers in London and each and every piece is carefully crafted and made by specialist craftsmen. The gemstones stand out for their quality in terms of colour selections, clarity and cutting.

Orofini Jewellery also extends their supply side advantages in securing quality gemstones at very competitive prices to their customers as well.

The new store in Colombo comes with the additional feature of Orofini Accessories which has a fantastic line up of designer-wear handbags, wallets and Pashmina shawls at very competitive prices.

[nggallery id=472]