

OZO Colombo and Amari Galle host Miss England

Posted on

The OZO Colombo and Amari Galle welcomed Miss England 2016, Elizabeth Grant, along with the seven finalists of the Miss England 2017 pageant. The British beauties were in Sri Lanka for two weeks to take part in a stunning bikini photo shoot held across the beaches of Sri Lanka as the battle for the coveted title of Miss England continued.

The Miss England 2017 pageant, which has partnered with the Miss Premier Ceylon pageants, aims to promote Sri Lanka as a great travel destination across the UK and the Miss Premier Ceylon pageants, that will be staged in Sri Lanka on an annual basis.

Kiran Sonawane, Area Director - Sales and Marketing, OZO; Jessica Lord, Area Manager Public Relations, OZO; Miss World England 2016 - Elizabeth Grant and Samidda Malalgoda, Executive Marketing & Communications, OZO with Miss England 2017 Finalists

OZO Colombo and Amari Galle partnered with the programme and served as the perfect backdrop for the competition. The ladies were hosted for an evening of canapés in the background of live music at the ON14 Rooftop Bar and Lounge at OZO Colombo.

Miss Yorkshire showcased her talents by entertaining the guests with an unforgettable musical performance.