

OZO Chaweng Samui

OZO, of the ONYX Hospitality Group provides guests with a great night's sleep and accommodates visitors with a tailor-made destination guide. Visitors are guided to delight their taste buds in Hong Kong, nourish their soul in Colombo and indulge their heart in Koh Samui.

Hong Kong is a paradise for foodies and OZO Wesley Hong Kong on Hennessy Road in the Wan Chai District, is surrounded by a myriad of restaurants and cafés.

OZO Colombo is the perfect outpost to do a bit of soul searching and explore a vast array of religiously significant monuments. Top picks include Ganesh Kovil, the oldest and largest Hindu temple in town and the majestic Gangaramaya Buddhist Temple, a place of Buddhist worship. Visitors flock to meet Ganga, the resident elephant.

OZO Chaweng Samui, is located on the idyllic island of Koh Samui, Thailand. After a day spent relaxing on the beach, head to the beach front restaurants, and enjoy a moonlit stroll back to OZO. The Angthong National Marine Park, covering over 100 square kilometres of land and sea, should not be missed. You can also plan a visit to bathe at the Namuang Waterfall.

The guides are introduced by length of stay, such as 24, 48 and 72-hour. Accessible through interactive TVs in the guestrooms or information lecterns at the 'Spot', the OZO lobby, the guides are part of the OZO philosophy to maximise a guest's time.
