

President Ranil Wickremesinghe visits Arugambay

Posted on

President Ranil Wickremesinghe is the first president of Sri Lanka to visit Arugambay. The President emphasized the need to develop the needs and potential of the Eastern Province's tourism industry. The areas bound with nature's beauty are an asset to the country. The President and his team assessed the areas and engaged in discussions to solve problems and provide solutions.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe along with S. M. M. Muszhaaraff, Member of Parliament; Sagala Ratnayaka, Senior Advisor to the President on National Security and Chief of Presidential Staff; A.L.M. Ataullah, Member of Parliament; W.D. Weerasinghe, Member of Parliament; and Senthil Thondaman, Eastern Province Governor.

President being welcomed to Peanut Farm by Mathi and Glenda Parthipan.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe is the first President to visit Arugambay...

President being welcomed to Arugambay Roccas.

President Ranil Wickremesinghe visits Arugambay

Arugambay podbay staff.

Arugambay Roccos staff.

W.D. Weerasinghe, MP with Mathi & Glenda Parthipan; A M Naleem; G P G Sandika Thushara; S. Gunesinghe; Perumal Partheepan, N. Sadha; and others.

The President emphasized the need to develop the needs and potential of the Eastern Province's tourism industry.

Staff from Paper Moon Kudils; Arugambay Roccos, and Arugambay Podbay.