Raja Jewellers, one of the oldest gold jewellery dealers in the country, has opened its first showroom in Negombo as a first step in expanding their branch network. Described as an 'Ultra Modern Showroom' by the company, the new outlet is located at 309, Main Street, Negombo. The showroom was opened in the presence of Anura Priyadharshana Yapa, Minister of Petroleum Industries and Felix Perera, Minister of Social Services and Mayors of Negombo, Hambantota and Seeduwa-Katunayake.

The new 'Ultra Modern Showroom' from Raja Jewellers features novel collections for ladies, gents and kids. You can also custom order pieces according to your design, which will then be produced by skilled craftsmen at Raja Jewellers. Since the new showroom is not just another branch, but an extension of the Raja Jewellers' Bambalapitiya main branch, a wide range of facilities and the latest jewellery collections are available at the outlet.
