The cast of Rebel Hearts – The Jukebox Musical brings the story to life during rehearsals, ahead of their Sing-Along Dinner Theater experience.

The Mystical Rose Performing Arts Center is delighted to present its most ambitious production yet—an unforgettable Sing-Along Dinner Theater Experience.

Blending the magic of live theater with the warmth of a shared dining experience, this brand-new Jukebox Musical promises an extraordinary evening filled with laughter, emotion, nostalgia, and spectacular entertainment. Designed to immerse audiences in a world of storytelling and music, the production offers a unique theatrical experience where guests can enjoy memorable performances while sharing a special dinner theater setting.

At the heart of the production is a stellar soundtrack featuring songs audiences know and love. From timeless favorites to crowd-pleasing classics, the music has been carefully selected to create an atmosphere where everyone becomes part of the experience. Whether humming along quietly or singing with enthusiasm, audiences will have the opportunity to relive cherished memories while creating new ones.

Produced by the Mystical Rose Performing Arts Center, this exciting production showcases months of dedication, creativity, and collaboration from its cast, musicians, directors, choreographers, and production crew. Every detail has been thoughtfully designed to create an immersive evening in which outstanding performances, captivating storytelling, music, and a distinctive dinner theatre environment come together.
