The Beach House in Mirissa offers just the right blend of sun, sand, and sea.

Mirissa stands as one of Sri Lanka's most striking coastal destinations — a vibrant stretch of southern shoreline known for its sweeping beaches, clear turquoise waters, and an atmosphere that balances energy with natural beauty.

Reveal The Collection, a luxury boutique offering, presents a curated selection of four beachfront villas that redefine coastal luxury together. These include Lantern Boutique Villa, The Beach House, and the two Ubuntu Beach Villas, all positioned along Mirissa's most scenic shoreline. Across 28 well-appointed rooms and suites, the Collection seamlessly blends contemporary design with thoughtful comfort, creating elegant, modern spaces that perfectly align with the rhythm of the Indian Ocean.

Each villa brings a distinct expression of coastal living. Lantern offers six contemporary ocean-facing rooms with open, light-filled interiors. Guests can also enjoy 71 Lantern Bistro & Bar, where fresh seafood sourced from the local market and regional ingredients are elevated into dishes that reflect bold flavors and culinary heritage.

The Beach House features stylish suites tucked behind lush tropical greenery, striking a balance between privacy and stunning ocean views.

Mornings begin with floating breakfasts in private pools, pause midday for high tea by the waves, and close with sundown cocktails as the sky deepens into color.
