Rich Look Fashions opened a new showroom in Kalutara to better service their clientele in the area delivering them a novel experience in modern fashion. The showroom was opened by D M Gunasekera, General Manager - Bank of Ceylon (BOC).

The showroom, which was opened after eight years since its establishment, marks a significant step in the Rich Look's journey.

Rich Look Fashions is a successful clothing enterprise with three ultramodern showrooms in the Western Province. Its Founder and Managing Director, H T Ariyawansa started the company, through the establishment of a small-scale garment factory.

Over the years, having gained vast experience in the industry, Rich Look Fashions opened their first retail-clothing outlet in Maharagama, which became well established and was recognised among the people in the area within a short period of time. The company further expanded its operations by opening a new store in Negombo in 2011.
