Rich Look Opens in Ratnapura

Posted on
Fashionable attire for ladies

Rich Look, an establishment that is committed to providing affordable and in demand fashion designs extended its operations with the opening of its latest outlet in Ratnapura.

Moving from the domain of garment manufacturing into the sphere of retail clothing, Rich Look has evolved into an independent store with outlets in many suburban areas.

Complete with five levels, the spacious ambience combined with bright lightening and tiled floors set the mood for an ultimate shopping experience. This outlet caters to infants as well as children, ladies and gents. Adorable outfits in bright colourful hues, soft toys as well as everything a new born would need can be found here. In store are also current trends in materials and designs of a variety of preferred kinds. From casual wear to dressy looks, ladies can avail themselves to a large range of retail pleasure. It is even equipped with a very glitzy sari station that will make all your Bollywood fantasies come alive. Shoes, bags and accessories are also apart of the collection for ladies.

Gents too have an extensive range of exciting styles. From quirky casual to smart and sleek, men can find many stylish attires here. They also have a denim segment to choose from and the wearer is sure to look in vogue at any occasion. One can assemble a complete stylish outfit with footwear and accessories.

Mahinda Rajapaksa, Former President at the opening

They also have on offer interior decorations such as statues, wall hangings, ornaments, bed sheets and clocks. Battery cars for young ones and lunch boxes and bottles for school-goers makes Rich Look the go-to place to visit during any festive season, and all your varied gift-giving needs will surely be fulfilled. Adding to that is the wrist watch collection as well as the many other gifting options. With an in-house gift wrapping station, customers can have their purchases wrapped and decorated.

Opened by Former President Mahinda Rajapaksa, Rich Look Ratnapura gathered a large crowd on its inaugural day including corporates, personalities and other dignitaries. The grand imposing white façade is the first of its kind in Ratnapura, and is the brain child of H T Ariyawansa, Director, Rich Look. The family business strives to take fashion into the homes and hearts of all Sri Lankans, and their newest venture Rich Look will continue to fulfill this objective.