Russian Restaurant Nebesa in Colombo

Posted on

Rising to two floors complete with an outdoor canopy seating, Nebesa is all about catering to a connoisseur palate and lavish comforts.

The ambience at Nebesa is distinct, with a careful and conscientious selection in its interiors, to give guests a truly holistic dining experience. The upper floor has been designed for 21 VIP guests. It is furnished with plush upholstered chairs to which you can ease into as your culinary journey unfolds. From its rich mahogany tables, teak timber touches, white flooring to neutral wallpaper, customers can unwind in luxury.

A 3D wall area provides soothing imagery to complement the plush aura. Lavish comforts extend to the floor below with a seating capacity of 65. Black and white tones and antique timber furnishings, paintings, handmade tables and upholstered chairs add a quaint and classic touch.

At mid-day, the restaurant will be an ideal stop for a business lunch. While drinks range from mocktails, coffee, ice tea and milk shakes, the tea bar offers up to 40 varieties to chose from, be it a good old brew of regular tea or a pot of luxury silver tips white tea.