

Russian Restaurant Nebesa to open in April

Nebesa Restaurant, which specialises in Russian cuisine, will open in April. Rising to two floors complete with an outdoor canopy seating, Nebesa is all about catering to a connoisseur palate and lavish comforts. The ambience at Nebesa is distinct, with a careful and conscientious selection in its interiors, to give guests a truly holistic dining experience.

The upper floor has been designed for 21 VIP guests. It is furnished with plush upholstered chairs which you can ease into as your culinary journey unfolds. From its rich mahogany tables, teak timber touches, white flooring to neutral wallpaper, and the strains of new age fusion music, customers can unwind in luxury all day.

A 3D wall area on the upper floor provides soothing imagery to complement the plush aura of the restaurant. Lavish comforts extend to the floor below with a seating capacity of 65. Black and white tones and antique timber furnishings, paintings, handmade tables and upholstered chairs add a quaint and classic touch.

At mid-day, the restaurant will be an ideal stop for a business lunch. The friendly and helpful staff will assist you to make a selection from the extensive menu of fusion cuisine.

Special occasions, birthday parties, events, and romantic evenings with your loved ones can be celebrated at Nebesa.
