

Rohit Khosla, Area Director and General Manager - Taj Samudra with award winners

S.T.A.R.S—Special Thanks and Recognition System at Taj Samudra, Colombo held their annual awards ceremony headed by Rohit Khosla, Area Director and General Manager of the Hotel.

Three employees from the House Keeping and Security department who obtained the highest scores from guest satisfaction surveys at the Taj Samudra, Colombo were felicitated by the Managing Director of the Taj Group of Hotels in India recently.

S.T.A.R.S is a way of rewarding achievement and exceptional performances by employees within the TAJ Group of Hotels worldwide. The highest achievers will receive a token of appreciation once a year in India. This year, three employees—P Sunil and K S Tennakoon from the Housekeeping Department and M A N J Perera from the Sports Centre/Security Department—were felicitated by Rohit Khosla, the Area Director and General Manager of Taj Samudra.

The recipients were very motivated and thrilled to receive the award and said that they look forward to assisting the other staff of the Taj team to receive this award next year.
