

The Shore by O!—the ultimate beach pub

Posted on

If there is one perfect place to wind down by the beach in Mount, it's hard to beat The Shore by O! This relaxation spot is perched on the cliffs at the southern end of Mount Lavinia Beach with a panoramic view of ocean and the beach.

Spacious and stylishly furnished in oceanic hues, The Shore by O! attracts a crowd of local urbanites, foreigners and visitors. With a capacity for housing over 300 customers, this is the largest pub located on the sands of Mount Lavinia.

Together with an attractive selection of locally crafted and affordable beers, there's a hefty list of cocktails, an array of wines, champagnes and plenty of imported spirits. The Shore by O! serves an assortment of seafood dishes along with many Sri Lankan spicy bites. If you're staying on for a more substantial meal, expect some tasty fillers with emphasis on seafood in the dining room upstairs.

To enhance the dreamy and romantic mood of this setting, you will be serenaded with live music—Jazz on Wednesdays, reggae on Tuesdays and a bit of rock and roll retro on Fridays and Saturdays.

Sunset is always the most magical time to visit the Shore. You can come with your flip flops, donned in shorts and bring your dog along. After all, The Shore by O! is your home away from home beach pub.
