

Siddhalepa company at CSR Conference

Posted on

The Oslo Conference on CSR 2012 organised by the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs was attended by delegates from several countries. Sri Lanka was represented by Anushka Vidanapathirana, Marketing Manager of the Siddhalepa Group of Companies, on an invitation extended by the Foreign Ministry of Norway.

The Conference offered an opportunity to present Siddhalepa's ongoing activities dedicated to the protection of the environment, human rights, promotion of social welfare, transparency and corporate ethics. It also served as a Forum for spreading the message of CSR and future trends in the field.
