

Spa Ceylon launches Royal Indulgence collection

Save The Majestic Ceylon Elephant range

Spa Ceylon unveiled their 'Royal Indulgence Collection' featuring over 100 luxuriously pampering gift options presented in a unique festive theme.

The gift collection features Spa Ceylon's extensive selection of luxuriously aromatic spa, skin, body, bath and hair preparations and wellness balms, as well as exotic home aromas, candles, diffusers and hand-made stoneware. Spa Ceylon's latest offering of Aromaveda fragranced clothing and gifts from the 'Save The Majestic Ceylon Elephant' range complete the offering.

A highlight of the collection is the limited edition Cardamom Rose home spa set infused with Spa Ceylon's popular signature aroma blend of the same name, packed in red jewelled bottles topped with antique brass closures adorned with the Ceylonese blossom design and presented in ruby hued woven raffia pouches.

The collection is designed to appeal to international shoppers and will also be rolled out across Spa Ceylon's chain of foreign retail locations opening in Turkey,

India, Maldives, Singapore, Japan and South Africa. Promoting luxurious well-being, Spa Ceylon's gifts make perfect indulgences for the man or woman who has it all. Available in a range of assortments to suit different gifting needs—whether it is pampering that someone special, gifting your family and friends, or recognising your esteemed clients and business associates.
