

Spa Ceylon Opened at Lewis Place Negombo

The façade of Spa Ceylon Negombo inspired by vibrant Sri Lankan floral motifs

Spa Ceylon unveiled its 70th luxury spa and retail space in Negombo, one of the bustling tourist destinations in the country. The elegant three-storied building boasts its imposing presence with a bright façade adorned with Spa Ceylon signature palace art floral motifs. The outlet is designed to be the epitome of luxury in Negombo. It was opened by Shivantha Dias and Shalin Balasuriya, Founders of Spa Ceylon amidst a gathering of special guests and invitees.

Upon entrance, customers are greeted with soothing Ceylonese melodies, while rich floral fragrances tingle all the senses. The ambience appeals to all senses and every detail of the luxury spa and outlet is thoughtfully designed. The multi-sensory and multidimensional Spa Ceylon experience includes the gourmet Ceylon tea collection, the Ceylon Elephant Co carousel, a wellness wall of island balms, a palace art gift gallery, the Eau de Ceylon aroma bar, the luxury soap buffet, a wellness bath and body wall and a home aroma selection.

While the store flows into a luxuriously laid out spa experience on the upper floors, the beach-side garden features a signature Spa Ceylon gourmet tea and relaxation lounge. The spa offers an extensive range of luxury Ayurveda treatments including Ayurveda facials, body scrubs, body polishes as well as waxing, nail and beauty services.
