

Spa Ceylon wins at World Luxury Spa Awards 2016

Spa Ceylon Management Team

Spa Ceylon Directors Shiwantha Dias and Shalin Balasuriya receiving the Global Award for Best Luxury Spa Group at the Awards Gala in Switzerland

Spa Ceylon, yet again stamped its presence in the International Luxury Spa segment by clinching two major awards at the World Luxury Spa Awards 2016, at their bi-annual awards gala held in Switzerland. Winning the Global Award for Best Luxury Spa Group and the Continent Winner for the Best Luxury Ayurveda Spa, Spa Ceylon became the only South Asian brand to win in the Global category in 2016.

The World Luxury Spa Awards acknowledged as the world's foremost platform for recognising excellence in the global spa industry, which expands across 140 countries, setting the benchmark in quality, innovation and service for spas around the globe and establishes itself as the world's leading awards initiative for luxury spas. Awards are presented to luxury on a country, continent and global basis based on the votes of global spa-goers and industry experts. The winning spas are considered the top tier of the international luxury spa industry and are promoted globally by the World Luxury Spa Awards.

Commenting on the award, Shiwantha Dias, Managing Director, Spa Ceylon stated, "We are truly honoured to be recognised at the World Luxury Spa Awards yet again. The Spa Ceylon brand has taken the art of luxury Ayurveda from Sri Lanka, to all corners of the world and has really put Sri Lanka on the international map. Awards of this nature help us to showcase the quality of our spas, and highlight that they are run according to the very best international standards." Shalin Balasuriya, Co-founder and Director stated, "Our spas and high-performance product range have filled a crucial void in the beauty and wellness industry, by blending the best of modern technology with ancient formulae to create products and experiences that are unlike anything else available in the market. We are also pleased that this award comes at a time of us furthering both our local and international presence".