An array of Middle Eastern dishes from Cinnamon Grand

Cinnamon Grand provides an Iftar dining experience designed to bring together families, friends and colleagues in fellowship during the fasting period of Ramazan. The three Iftar menus - a Snack Menu, a Set Menu and a Buffet, is served from 6.30pm to 11pm at The Taprobane and Shisha Lounge. In-house guests can also place their orders through Room Service.

The Snack Menu, available at the Shisha Lounge and through Room Service is priced at 1,400 rupees. The menu features dried apricots, dates, roasted cashew nuts, almonds with a choice of beverages including faluda, lassi, meat and veg congee, an Arabic cold mezze platter and hot mezze.

The Set Menu at The Taprobane, Shisha Lounge and through Room Service is priced at 2,500 rupees. The menu includes dried apricots, dates, roasted cashew nuts and other nuts, almonds, an array of beverages and lassi to choose from, the Arabic cold mezze platter, soup, grilled meat or fish platters with rice and speciality sweet items.

The Taprobane, the Cinnamon Grand's 24-hour restaurant, will lay out an extensive buffet spread at 2,500 rupees which will feature cold mezze, soups, carvery, many action stations and a roti corner. An array of Middle Eastern and international dishes will be served. While prices mentioned exclude taxes and other charges, reservations can be made through Cinnamon Grand.
