Spring/Summer 2013 collection by Michelle Therese Atelier

Posted on

The new collection features laid back and floaty silhouettes

Michelle Therese Atelier has unveiled yet another sophisticated collection with a muted yet fun colour palette bursting with summer’s energy. Focusing on our tropical climate, designer Michelle Therese who is based out of Sri Lanka, has created some essential pieces using her trademark detailing, that gets the wearer from one day time affair to another more sophisticated evening soiree.

Inspired by a laid back and floaty silhouette, Michelle Therese Atelier has worked with pure silks to produce a sensational collection that is now available at Casa Colombo.

[nggallery id=549]