Staff trip for American Premium Executive staff

Posted on

The group of 175 executive staff members

The American Premium Group executive staff members, numbering 175, spent a day at the luxurious five star Hotel Heritance in Ahungalle.

They travelled in four luxury air-conditioned buses, amidst grand revelry, music and singing.

Apart from the varied games and entertainment conducted under the supervision of professional animators, the staff group was treated to a sumptuous lunch followed by cakes and tea towards evening.

Prizes were awarded to the winners of the various competitions, including dancing which was held at the Club. Participants enjoyed themselves in different ways, some at the beach, others in the spacious swimming pool, while some took to table tennis and indoor games.It was a day of fond memories for all staff members who joined.

[nggallery id=451]