Stay Refreshed at Mandarina Colombo

Posted on

Enjoy panoramic views from the infinity pool and On the Eleventh restaurant

Nestled in the heart of Colombo on the Galle Road, Mandarina Colombo is an ideal destination for both business and leisure travellers.

Words Gayathri Kothalawala

Strategically located, Mandarina Colombo offers stylish contemporary amenities and services to its guests. As you walk into the lobby and reception area, the earthen shades highlighted by orange hues will capture your attention. Café M, situated in the lobby, is the ideal place to enjoy a light snack of burgers, sandwiches, cakes savouries and a selection of beverages.

Mandarina Colombo is ideal for business and leisure travellers.

Mandarina Colombo is also a popular venue to host corporate events, conferences and meetings. ‘Maple 1’ and ‘Maple 2’ conference rooms can facilitate corporate trainings, conferences and conventions. The two spaces can be merged into one larger space accommodating more participants. The Marco Polo boardroom accommodates 16 people, while the Lotus mini meeting room is ideal for interviews and one-on-one meetings assuring privacy together with luxurious comfort.

The state-of-the-art conference halls of the hotel are complemented with advanced audio and visual facilities. Mandarina Colombo provides refreshments in the adjacent foyer for the guests who attend conferences and other events at the premises. Magnolia, the spacious banquet hall spanning an entire floor at Mandarina Colombo, is a venue for weddings. It can also be used for product launches and conferences. Hall arrangements and decorations can be customised freely according to the clients’ requirements.

The business hotel offers 80 luxury rooms spread across 11 storeys. Designed to offer the warmth of Sri Lankan hospitality to travellers, the hotel provides three accommodation options; Standard, Deluxe and Premier.

Guests can enjoy spectacular views of the turquoise Indian Ocean or the bustling city from the spacious and comfortable rooms.

On the Eleventh, the rooftop restaurant serves sumptuous cuisine, which can be savoured while gazing out at the city skyline. The open-air dining venue caters to different palates with a range of Sri Lankan and international dishes. Guests can select from an à la carte menu or the buffet. The Executive Lunch Buffet served at On the Eleventh from 12pm to 2.30pm from Monday to Friday is popularly sought-after by professionals in the corporate capital of the island.

Mandarina Colombo additionally provides its in-house guests with facilities such as an exclusive state-of-the-art gym and an infinity pool that overlooks the ocean. The view from the rooftop lounge is surreal; Colombo’s changing skyline is bordered by stunning vistas of the Indian ocean, tinged with beautiful hues from the sun as it sets westward.

Mandarina Colombo has ample parking spaces and is conveniently accessible from both Galle Road and Bagatalle Road.

The hotel is owned and managed by Macksons Properties and provides both business and leisure travellers a memorable experience marked with luxury and comfort.

433, Galle Road,
Colombo 3; (+94 11) 255 0660
sales@mandarinacolombo.com
mandarinacolombo.com

The spacious and elegant Magnolia banquet hall hosts weddings, conferences and corporate events.

Enjoy a comfortable stay in the standard room, equipped with modern facilities.

Workout while on vacation at the state-of-the-art gym.

Business meetings can be held at ‘Maple 2’.