Alpha Orient Lanka gave its patrons the chance to feel the powerful and exhilarating experience of the F1 Grand Prix in Singapore this September. On successful completion of the promotion, a lucky draw was held at the arrivals duty free shop with the patronage of Dimantha Kinigama, CEO of Alpha Orient, a few managers of the organisation and a representative of the Western Province - Department of Revenue.

The customers who purchased selected products from the Alpha Orient Lanka duty free arrivals outlet at Bandaranaike International Airport from April to June, qualified for daily and monthly prizes, in addition to a grand mega prize.

Six daily prizes were awarded via scratch cards and the lucky winners walked away with F1 Car Shaped USB Drives (4GB) and F1 T-shirts. Monthly winners and the mega winner were selected through a lucky draw.
